

MANOTICK

Haunted Harvest Festival

Saturday, October 25th, 11:00 - 4:00

A frightfully fun day full of Games, Entertainment, Pumpkin Carving, Hay Rides, Prizes & More!

2008

Haunted Harvest Festival

Saturday, October 25, 11:00-4:00

Mews Kids' Zone

Moon Bounce, Junior Slide, Carnival Games.

The Mews Parking Lot North Hill, 11am-4pm

Visit Watson's Mill

Experience some Manotick history.

You can also learn about the ghost of Anne or maybe even catch a glimpse!

5525 Mill St.

A Company of Fools

Experience the Fools strolling the streets of Manotick.

12:30pm-3:30pm

Junkyard Symphony

Don't miss this amazing show!

Interactive fun for all ages.

Tent at Dickinson Square, 1pm & 3pm

Costume Prizes

Dress up in your most outrageous Harvest or Halloween costume and win a prize.

Best Storefront Contest

Merchants who decorate their storefront in Harvest or Halloween themes will have a chance to win!

Merchant Costume Contest

Merchants who dress up in either Harvest or Halloween costumes will have a chance to win prizes.

Free Harvest Horse Drawn Wagon Rides

Enjoy a Harvest Wagon Ride through
Manotick Village. 11am-4pm

Pumpkin Carving For Kids

We supply the pumpkins, you bring the carving tools and imagination, then you take it home!

Prizes for the most creative pumpkins.

Watson's Mill, 5525 Mill St., 11am - 3pm

Dickinson House

Come visit Dickinson House and learn about its History and Spirits. Mill St., 11am-4pm

The Cowguys

Stilt Walking/Roving Performances.

Face Painting

Have a scary face painted! For kids of all ages.

Tent at Dickinson Square, Mill St., 12pm - 4pm

For more on Manotick's rich history and amazing upcoming events visit www.manotickvillage.com

